

Biography of Mohammad Maayah (EMRC, Jordan)

Eng. Maayah is a Communication and International Cooperation Director, in Energy & Minerals Regulatory Commission (EMRC) since January 2019 and has worked as former chairman of the Consumer Working Group in MEDREG from 2016 to 2018.

Eng. Maayah holds a B.Sc. in Electrical Engineering at the Kiev International University, Ukraine. He worked as an electrical energy section head besides other positions at the same commission since it's established. He worked as monitoring Engineer / distribution energy section head / electricity regulatory commission before merging with other activities.

His experience is in electrical and energy sectors from restructuring point of view, regulation in different fields, pricing, analysis of power etc. He is also a Member of the Jordan Engineers Association. He is an active member in many Steering Committees related to energy and minerals sectors in different aspects.

He was a counterpart of EU project to develop and establish all regulatory documents for electricity such as (standard licenses for generation, transmission and distribution) in addition to performance standards codes for all activities of electricity and implementation of monitoring of electricity sector during all time period of project from (April 2009- April 2009) .