Maria Teresa Galante

Maria Teresa Galante has been working at the Italian Regulatory Authority for Energy, Networks and Environment (ARERA) since 2010, where she has been implementing Institutional International Relations at bilateral and multilateral levels and assisting ARERA's Board Members. She has represented ARERA in several international networks such as MEDREG, the Energy Community Regulatory Board (ECRB) and the Council of European Energy Regulators (CEER).

Furthermore, she has experience in implementing European Commission and other international organisations' projects such as Twinning and TAIEX (Technical Assistance and Information Exchange Instrument). Recently she has contributed to the creation of the Balkan Energy School, which is a new platform of capacity building and know-how exchange devoted to the promotion of the Euro-Balkan energy markets integration, where she coordinates all the main activities.

She holds a Degree in Political Science, International Relations and European Integration (Catholic University of Sacred Heart of Milan).
