Biography of Erjola Sadushi
(ERE, Albania)

Ms. Erjola Sadushi is a Commissioner at the Energy Regulatory Authority of Albania (ERE), a position she has held since 2017, with a mandate renewed in 2022 for another 5 years. With a degree in Jurisprudence (2001), she has over 20 years of experience in the energy sector, focusing on licensing, market monitoring and consumer protection.

After completing her studies in Jurisprudence in 2001, Ms. Sadushi began her career in the energy sector and in May 2002 joined ERE, holding leadership positions as Director of the Licensing, Market Monitoring, Legal and Consumer Protection Directorires. She also holds a professional master's degree in public administration.

She has led the development and implementation of strategies for addressing consumer complaints and has contributed to the creation and harmonization of legislation and bylaws in line with European standards.

Ms. Sadushi has played a key role in drafting secondary legislation, legal amendments and regulatory acts in the electricity and gas sector. She has closely cooperated with European and international institutions and has reported on regulatory issues within the European Commission.

Engaged in international forums, she has been a member of organizations such as ERRA and MEDREG, and has benefited from professional training from prestigious institutions such as USAID, the World Bank and American and European institutions. Her focus has been on developing knowledge in energy management and regulatory issues. Her work and professional experience have significantly impacted the energy sector in Albania and the improvement of the legal and regulatory framework.